SEARCHING AFTER TRUTH.

The Realization Was In Weird Discord to the Anticipation.

"Truth lies at the bottom of a well," so the people of the world told her. She was young and fair, and she searched for Truth, but her frequent visits to the well brought no discovery; only the reflection of her beautiful face in the water.

One night a knock came at her door, and she sprang up and opened it. There on the threshold stood a bundle of rags, which moved as if breathing. She shuddered as she asked, "Who are you?" Then came the answer:

"I am Truth."
 "I would see your face," she cried.
 "Nay, innocent one, my face is not fair to look upon, but I am Truth."
 The cold wind was blowing and crying, and she closed the door. The Truth she sought was pure and beautiful, not loathsome, and with the conviction of youth she was satisfied with herself for having refused this greivous thing admittance. From that day, however, strange visitors knocked at her door, and each called himself Truth.

First came a gay party of dancers, whose graceful figures awaying to and fro captivated her fancy; their musical voices held her as in their thrall. Their visit was like a delightful dream, and she asked, "Pray tell me who you are?" And they answered, "We are Truth." So she believed for days; then she realized her mistake, and that they were not Truth, but pleasure. Again she went to the well, but there found nothing.

Day dawned brightly, and there came another knock.

On her threshold stood a lovely child. Its hair was garlanded with flowers, and its garb was spotless white.

When it entered, it was as if a portion of the pure light of the sun had stolen into the room.

The child's arms were soon entwined about the neck of the seeker after Truth. The odor of the blossoms intoxicated her; her heart beat with wild delight; a tender kiss was stamped on her brow, and with a gentle whisper, "I am Truth," the child was gone, and at her feet buds blossomed—the room was lighter than it had been for years.

The memory of that vision remained with her a long time, but at last it fled, and then she knew it was Love, not Truth.

Again she went to the well, yet found nothing.

Years after another knock came. Her heart beat fast as the figure of a man entered. His manner was flattering and full of grace—his face seemed honest.

She had never felt the influence of other visitors exerted over her with the power of this one.

She dared not ask his name, but as he left he said, pressing her hand, "I am Truth."

For years she believed it; then came doubt, and she saw what had been her ideal of Truth was only Policy.

The next visitor was a long bearded, bent old man, whose face was furrowed and whose hands were palsied.

From his feeble lips came the words, "I am Truth." His stay was short, but she remembered that visitor, and oft when the days were drear she saw before her the trembling hands, the thin, snow white locks, the bent form and the quivering lips, and she believed she had found Truth.

But she was growing older now, and something told her that Sorrow was not Truth. When she went to the well, and it was dry. But there, far down in its depths, she saw a truth. "Who are you?" she cried, and a hollow voice replied, "I am Tradition." So she turned her face toward home and knew that the whole world lied and was deceived.

That same night came a knock at her door. She rose slowly and opened it. There stood the strange creature covered with rags—her first visitor.

"What would you? Who are you?" Then came the answer, "I am Truth."

"I would see your face," she murmured.

"Nay, experienced one, my face is not fair to see, but I am Truth."

"Yes, would I see it," she made answer, "for well know I now that Truth is not what we would have it, nor is it fair."

Then the figure threw off its rag covering, and before her stood a skeleton.

Now she knew her life search was ended and that she had at last found Truth.

Peacocks' Feathers.

Peacocks' feathers have been handed down to us from the ancient days of mythology as emblematical of treachery, evil and misfortune. The origin of this strange superstition is founded upon the following classical story: Oedipus, king of Egypt, upon starting on his Indian expedition, left his queen, Isis, regent, with Argus, his minister, as her chief adviser.

Argus, with his hundred eyes, or rather his spies, soon made himself so formidable and powerful that he seized the queen regent, shut her up in a strong castle and proclaimed himself king of Egypt. Mercury was sent against him with a strong army, took him captive and cut off his head, whereupon Jingo metamorphosed him into a peacock and set his spies in his tail. From this legend and the various additions made to it from time to time the belief has arisen that it is unlucky to have peacocks' feathers inside a house.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Substitute Watch Crystal.

Did you ever smash your watch crystal just when you could not possibly replace it? When it happens again, shake out the broken glass, open the little rim that holds it—the bezel—lay over the face a piece of tissue paper and shut the bezel. This will save the hands from catching in things and not interfere with the going.—Northwest Magazine.

A Fastidious Dog.

Gentleman (after dropping a piece of cutlet to his dog)—"Hallo! Caesar won't eat that meat. Is it possible that the sagacious animal knows that his mistress cooked it herself?"—Sokal.

Children of One for Fletcher's Ointment.

Don't You Know

that you can secure almost immediate relief from Indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with Indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the Liver that causes Indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from these troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. B. Wharton, Baltimore, Md.
 "It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the time. I give it a cordial commendation."

SILVER PURCHASES.

The offerings of silver to the Government during twenty days of the present month amounted to less than 2,000,000 ounces, including lots which were offered two or three times. The Treasury Department refused all the offers for the alleged reason that the price asked was above the London quotations. The Department made counter offers, on one of which it secured 666,000 ounces of silver at 73 1/2 cents per ounce. Unless holders of bullion ascertain what it is worth in London and offer it at that or a less price to the Government, the amount authorized by law will not be purchased this month.

The Bullion Purchase act of 1890 directs the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase 4,500,000 ounces of silver monthly at a price not exceeding $1.20 per ounce. The Secretary of the Treasury, who, since he left the Senate, has become thoroughly imbued with goldbug ideas, thinks that London brokers, not American bullion producers, should determine what the United States Government shall pay for silver, and he will not purchase an ounce of the metal unless it is offered at the London price. As the London bullion buyers make money by bearing the bullion and then they keep the price down, and the Secretary of the Treasury encourages them to do so by refusing to purchase the metal at a higher figure than the offer. The fact that the United States produces about half the silver of the world and that England does not produce an ounce of the metal does not inspire the Secretary to assist in advancing its price and thereby benefit the country. He is actuated solely by a desire to please the gold trust and to practically encourage the money sharks of Lombard street to fix the price of an American product at the lowest possible figure.

The goldbugs are doing all in their power to disabuse the public mind of the erroneous idea that this is a government of the people, by the people and for the people.

THE REVOLT IN IOWA.

The revolt of the Iowa Democracy against Wall street indicates the defeat of Governor Boies, who was twice elected on a free coinage platform, and now teams with the gold bug. The Dubuque Telegraph, an influential Democratic paper, published in a city that gave Cleveland about 5,500 majority last November says in commenting on Congressman Bryan's farewell remarks to the Democratic party: "Mr. Bryan is only one of millions of Democrats who have concluded that if the party is to be used to bolster Cleveland's pro-Wall street policy and to perpetuate the class legislation against which it has protested, in the past, it is time for them to seek other political associations. Cleveland has irretrievably split the organization which elected him. Hereafter the Western and Southern wings, which believe in popular government and a sound currency, of by and for the money power, will be found in congressional and national election working shoulder to shoulder with the Populists."

When newspapers such were staunch supporters of the Democracy before it surrendered to the gold trust express themselves in that manner on the eve of a state election, the party can not expect to achieve a victory and it is not probable that Governor Boies, whose silence is construed as an endorsement of a policy which he denounced two years ago, will be re-elected.

Reports from Washington indicate that the silver men have concluded to let the repeal bill come to a vote. It is asserted that the anti-repeal Democrats decided to place no more obstacles in Voorhees' way, and the anti-repeal Republicans and the Populists had an understanding with the Silver Democrats that they would abstain from the fight. As all sorts of reports are sent out from Washington, this rumor may not be authentic. Last Saturday it was given out as settled that a compromise measure had been agreed upon; Monday that was contradicted. Now it is said the silver men have decided not to prolong the contest and the next report may prove that this is unfounded.

The Journal has received a copy of Senator Stewart's great speech delivered in the Senate of the United States Monday and Tuesday, September 25th and 26th, 1893, on the resolution declaring that independence of the coordinate departments of the Government, the legislative, the executive and the judicial, must be maintained and that the use of the power and influence of one department to control the action of another is in violation of the Constitution and destructive to our form of government. The speech makes 102 pages of closely printed matter, some of which is historical and all of which is instructive and interesting.

The Denver News says: "It is not long to wait before the goldbugs will begin to realize that the common people think of free silver. Iowa, Virginia, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado will vote for an anti-repeal coinage. In Ohio and New York the two old parties have eliminated the financial issue and are threatening to old straw and last year's humbug."

The managers appointed by the State Agricultural Society to prepare the Nevada exhibit for the Midwinter Fair have issued an address to the citizens of Washoe county and invite their active co-operation in this laudable undertaking.

A VERY GLOOMY OUTLOOK.

The Fight in the Senate Will Not be Prolonged.

A PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT

Evans Will Endeavor to Prove an Alibi.

WILL NOT PROLONG THE FIGHT. Voting on the Amendment to the Repeal Bill May Begin This Week.

WASHINGTON, October 24.—The report that the silver Democrats in the Senate have decided against further effort to prolong the fight over the repeal bill is correct beyond question. The policy was decided upon in a conference of silver Democrats who have a frained from filibustering, but who felt inclined yesterday to enter upon a campaign of that character in opposition to the bill. Cockrell, Harris and Vothall were among those present. It is understood that they discussed the matter at some length, and decided that, inasmuch as the silver men could hope for but very little in the way of compromise, if they should succeed in defeating the bill, it was better to submit without further heated discussion and allow the question to go to the country.

It is believed now that it may be possible to begin voting upon the amendments to the bill by Thursday, as it seems probable that speech-making will be concluded by to-morrow evening. There are a great many amendments, and it is possible that there will be more or less debate under the five-minute rule. It is generally agreed, however, that a vote on the bill itself can be reached by the close of the week.

Dubois of Idaho, who took a leading part yesterday in arranging for the continuation of the fight against unconditional repeal, said this afternoon that a vote would come probably within a week, as there will be no opposition or attempt at filibustering. "The speeches which have been begun will be finished," said Dubois, "and such other speeches as the Senators may desire to deliver. It is understood that the silver men have something yet to say, and that Stewart and Jones desire to conclude their work. Allison also desires to make some further remarks. Yesterday the leaders of the Democratic side said they would stand by us if we could continue the fight. Harris and others declared it was their determination to prevent a vote being taken, even if methods not yet invoked should be used. With this understanding we declared our intention of keeping up the fight. This morning Harris gave me some assurance, but an hour later he came to me and said he felt it his duty, after the assurance he had given, to let me know that he could not continue the fight as suggested, but would yield to the pressure of his associates on the Democratic side. He said he spoke for the Silver men on that side. I told him if we could no longer depend upon the friends of silver on the Democratic side we could no longer keep up the contest, and that a vote might be taken after debate had closed, but that there would be no more obstruction. The silver men will offer amendments and debate them, and will probably vote for all amendments which promise anything for silver. It is impossible to say when a vote will be taken, but I should think within a week."

MELLO NAMES A PRESIDENT.

The Brazilian Insurgents Establish a Provisional Government.

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay, October 24.—News from Rio de Janeiro is that Frederico Guilherme de Lorena has been proclaimed Provisional President of Brazil by Admiral Mello, who is in command of the insurgent fleet. Lorena is Captain of one of the rebel warships, and the Provisional Government of which he is now declared President was established some days ago at Deserto, which is the capital city of the State of South Catharina, and is situated on the island of that name, which lies just off the Atlantic coast of Brazil, about 450 miles south of Rio.

When the island went into the hands of Mello and his followers, they at once established their headquarters there and set up a provisional government, which has now been dignified by the addition of a President.

Chief Operator Ramsey Indicted.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., October 24.—F. A. Ramsey, Grand Chief of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, was indicted at Marion Friday by the grand jury of Linn county. He is charged with investigating the cutting and crossing of wires and otherwise obstructing the telegraphic system of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Northwestern Railway during the telegraphers' strike in September, 1892. Judge J. H. Preston of the District Court issued a bench warrant for his arrest. The warrant was served Saturday night at Ramsey's office in Vinton. He furnished a bond of $1,500 for his appearance at the coming term of the District Court.

DEBATE ON THE REPEAL BILL.

Senator Stewart Yields The Floor to Jones.

WASHINGTON, October 24.—Senator Stewart resumed his argument against the repeal bill. In answer to the charge that those who oppose the bill were thwarting the will of the majority he denied that such was the case. The filibusters were not the silver men, but the administration. It was filibustering against allowing the will of the majority to be expressed. They had used the most corrupt, most aggressive, most outrageous means, secret at first, public now, to enslave the majority. Let the Administration take off its band and let the majority express itself in the Senate, he said, and silver would have nearly two to one.

Kyle of South Dakota moved that when the Senate adjourned it be to meet at noon to-morrow. The motion was defeated, 4 to 41.

Stewart then resumed his speech and at 1:30, and without concluding, yielded the floor to Jones of Nevada, who resumed his argument against the repeal bill.

At 4 p. m. the Senate took a recess till 11 o'clock to-morrow.

A Train Robber Killed.

HELENA, October 24.—Jack White, the last of the train robbers who held up the Northern Pacific train near Livingston on August 28th, was killed to-day at Coram, near Kalispel, while in the act of drawing his revolver on J. P. Gensman, who was attempting his capture.

Gensman, who knew him well, had met White in the mountains a week ago and made an appointment to meet him to-day and bring him supplies. He took a companion, who concealed himself near the rendezvous.

White appeared and was ordered to throw up his hands, but made an effort to pull his revolver. Gensman was too quick and put a bullet through his lungs. White's alias was Ben Hall.

Evans' Defense.

JACKSON, Cal., October 24.—The prosecution's case in the Evans' trial has closed. In his opening statement the defendant's counsel said he expected to prove a complete alibi by a number of witnesses that the defendant was not in Alameda county on the day of the Torrey murder, that he was on the Rooks ranch in Calaveras county on the 14th and 15th, that he was seen there between 4 and 5 o'clock on the 16th, and it was an impossibility for him to be at the scene of the murder.

Telegraph Notes.

The Cabinet meeting yesterday was principally devoted to the silver question and the situation in the Senate.

The Michigan Supreme Court has declared unconstitutional the act of the last Legislature allowing women to vote at municipal elections.

Frank Hilbert shot and mortally wounded his fiancée, Pauline Holman, and then killed himself in Chicago yesterday. Cause, jealousy.

The rumored strike on the Santa Fe road is unfounded. Vice President Robinson says the men will be paid September wages November 5th.

A wedding in high life took place in Chicago yesterday. J. D. Hutchinson and Tottie Ziegler were married at the top of the Ferris wheel, 200 feet above ground.

The news of the surrender of the silver men in the Senate was received in Wall street about 2 o'clock yesterday. It found the market with a strong upward tendency, which became a rush, resulting in decided advances.

J. F. Blant, President, and Simon Ottenberg, Director, of the Madison Square bank, New York city, were arrested yesterday on a charge of mismanagement. The bank is defunct and nearly all the officers are under arrest.

Those who believe that thirteen is an unlucky number will find confirmation of the fact in an accident that occurred on the Indiana, Illinois and Southern railroad yesterday. The rear coach of the train was derailed and went over an embankment, turning twice over. All of the thirteen passengers in it were more or less seriously hurt, Benjamin Jewell fatally. The injured are being cared for.

The poison in your blood, however it may have come or whatever shape it may have taken, is cleared away by Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery. It's a remedy that rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses and invigorates the whole system. Salt-rheum, Tetter, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Enlarged Glands, and the worst Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, are perfectly and permanently cured by it.

Unlike the ordinary Spring medicines or sarsaparillas, the "Discovery" works equally well at all seasons. All the year round and in all cases, it is guaranteed, as no other blood medicine is. If it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.

Isn't it safer to say that no other blood-purifier can be "just as good?" If it were, wouldn't it be sold so?

THE CRIME OF THE CENTURY.

Making Millions at the Expense of the Poor—John P. St. John on the Situation.

Following is an able letter written by Hon. John P. St. John to the editor of the New York Weekly Witness, a paper of a large circulation, on the financial situation:

To the Editor:—I deeply regret to see the editorial page of the dear old Witness week after week marred by a demand for a single gold standard, and a defense of "Wall street goldbugs" and the "British capitalists."

From 1887 to 1873 the ratio of silver, to one of gold, fluctuated between 14.14 in 1870, the lowest point, and 15.92 in 1873, the highest point. Thus showing that silver varied but very little in value until it was unjustly and treacherously demonetized by Congress in 1873. That this infamous legislation was secured through the influence of the "Wall street goldbugs" and "British capitalists" I have not the slightest doubt. The result was to increase the ratio of silver to gold from 16.17 in 1874 to 22.10 in 1889. In other words, by this one act the financial yard-stick was lengthened from three to about five feet, and placed in the hands of the "Wall street goldbugs" and "British capitalists" with which they measure all values (except gold) to-day.

WHEN TIMES WERE PROSPEROUS.

The average home market price for wheat in 1872 was $1.25 per bushel. So far this year the average has been not to exceed 65 cents. Oats in 1873, 37 cents; now 22 cents. Barley in 1873, 31 cents; now 40 cents. Cows in 1872, $33; now $22. While cotton, wool and farm lands have all gone down in about the same ratio.

Thus it will be seen that under the influence of this Wall street yard-stick, it now requires nearly twice as much of the product of the farm to buy a gold dollar as it did in 1872, while the private mortgage indebtedness of the people, held principally by "Wall street goldbugs" and "British capitalists," is simply frightful. Here are a few samples:

Illinois.....$384,298,150

Wisconsin.....121,338,188

Connecticut.....79,321,071

Nebraska.....132,902,322

New Jersey.....91,734,185

Massachusetts.....323,277,668

Kansas.....235,485,108

Rhode Island.....36,778,243

Missouri.....214,609,772

New Hampshire.....15,908,259

Iowa.....119,512,794

Indiana.....110,730,643

Pennsylvania.....613,105,802

Bear in mind that the foregoing figures are taken from the official United States census reports for 1890, and that while they do not include municipal or other public debts, nor any private unrecorded debt, yet the aggregate amount equals five-eighths of the full value of the gold coin of the world; and remember they only include thirteen of the forty odd States in the Union. Now as we approach an absolute single gold standard the financial yard-stick is lengthened by which all farm and labor values are measured and thus we make of the creditor a regular shlylock, demanding his pound of flesh of an already overburdened and outraged debtor.

GRINDING DOWN THE PEOPLE.

During all the years that this conscienceless policy has been tightening its grip upon the masses, the people, under the deceptive guise of protection, have been heavily taxed to build mansions on the hill-tops, while labor has been poorly clad and fed in "dug-outs" in the valley. And now it is proposed to further oppress and impoverish the debtor class by completely demonetizing silver, and thus closing the silver mines of this, the greatest silver-producing country on earth, and doing away with a class of money that served our people faithfully and well, and stood on an equality with gold for all debt-paying purposes, for at least eighty years prior to the outrageous act of 1873, and in this way reduce the volume of money and increase the power of Wall street to rule and ruin.

A complete demonetization of silver, coupled with the establishment of a single gold standard will bring to the debtor class of this nation the darkest and saddest hour that ever hovered over the homes of our people, and will be the worst kind of anarchy, backed up by law.

We are already drifting rapidly into a nation of tenants, governed by a few money kings.

In 1880, in ten average counties in Ohio, there were but twenty-five tenant farmers out of one hundred, but the number had grown to thirty-seven in 1890.

In an equal number of average counties in Kansas during the same period, the ratio of tenant farmers increased from thirteen to thirty-three.

And let us not forget that this occurs in a country yet in its infancy, the natural resources of which are unequalled, and having a population averaging only eighteen to the square mile.

A FEW ONLY BENEFITED.

But you ask, Have we not increased in wealth? I answer, Yes; and the increase has been enormous—in fact without a parallel; but a few men, less than 30,000, have been enabled under our present system to absorb more than one-half of it all, while millions who helped to produce this wealth are on our streets to-day penniless, homeless and breadless.

Don't stop to worry about a "parity between silver and gold." Restore silver to the first position it occupied under the law for more than one hundred years in this country and the question of parity between the two metals will adjust itself. Just as well talk about maintaining a physical parity between Sullivan and Corbett by giving one plenty of beefsteak, fresh air and free exercise, and shutting the other in a close room and feeding him on bread and water, as to think of maintaining a parity between gold and silver, so long as the law discriminates, as it now does, in favor of one and against the other.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Nor should any more agents be sent to Europe to consult as to what we are to do with silver. What we do with silver is none of Europe's business. England did not consult our Government when she demonetized silver in India. Ours is the greatest country on earth, and we can live independently of any government that don't want our silver. Let it be understood that we are Americans, and don't propose to let the gold king, at home or abroad, dictate our financial policy.

My brother, swing the old Witness fairly and squarely on the side of humanity in this struggle between the oppressor and the oppressed.

JOHN P. ST. JOHN.

THOSE STOLEN SOVEREIGNS.

A Man Arrested at Laughton's With a Lot of the Coins in His Possession.

About two months ago an English traveler named Bell who was going east on the passenger train left a valise in the car while he took a walk on the platform. When he went back to the car he missed the valise which he said contained 150 English sovereigns. Mr. Bell remained over here a day and informed the authorities of his loss and gave them a description of the valise and its contents. A man named Walton was arrested at Truckee with 48 sovereigns in his possession. He was indicted by the grand jury, convicted and sentenced to the State Prison for two years. Yesterday, since Walton's conviction, Constable Dickey learned that fifteen English sovereigns had been shipped by express to a San Francisco banking house, the consignor giving the name of Duncan McNaughton. The officers also ascertained that there was a letter in the postoffice addressed to that person. Yesterday the officers, who had been closely watching the postoffice, heard Sam Laughton, who he said, was stopping at the springs, and upon being informed that there was a letter for that individual he presented an order for it from McNaughton. Officers Dickey and Brown followed up the clue and driving to Laughton's springs arrested McNaughton with seventy-nine sovereigns in his possession. The letter contained a check from Lutro & Co., bankers, San Francisco, for $72 and a statement that they allowed him $4.80 each for the fifteen sovereigns sent them. McNaughton says he found the sovereigns and acknowledged that he knew that they belonged to Bell, and he intended to write him and ascertain what reward he would pay for the recovery of the coin. He is to be examined to-day before Justice Linn and unless he can show that he came by the money honestly his chances for joining Walton at the Carson hot springs are very good.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

You call them fools, but it may be their brains are benumbed by a torpid liver. People suffering with Indigestion and Dyspepsia get confused—the brain is inactive.
